City Spotlight

The City spotlight shines on Rochester Public Library and Monroe County Library System Director Patricia Uttaro for receiving the 2021 Sullivan Award for Public Library Administrators Supporting Services to Children!

The award is sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA), which annually recognizes an individual who's shown exceptional understanding and support of public library service to children while maintaining administrative responsibilities.

Patty, you are an extraordinary asset to our City and citizens! Your unyielding dedication to ensuring that our youngest residents are supported through literacy and your willingness to share your expertise with librarians across the nation is a testament to your commitment to education!

Congratulations! You make us proud!
