

Friends & Foundation of the Rochester Public Library presents Books Sandwiched In

Tuesday, September 27, 12:12pm-12:52pm

Kate Gleason Auditorium, Central Library, 115 South Ave.

Book: The Violence Project: How to Stop a Mass Shooting Epidemic
by Jillian Peterson and James Densley

"The authors' nuanced portraits of mass shooters buttress the case that these tragedies 'are not an inevitable fact of American life; they're preventable.' This is a sensitive and knowledgeable treatment of one of America's most vexing social problems." – Publishers Weekly

Reviewer: John M. Klofas, professor of criminal justice, and founder and director emeritus of the Center for Public Safety Initiatives at the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT). He is also past chairperson of the Department of Criminal Justice at RIT.

Mass Shooting Data Links

Contact: John Klofas john.klofas@rit.edu

- Mass Shootings in America | Everytown Research & Policy
- USA Today's Mass Killings Database
- The Marshall Project: What You Need to Know About the Rise in U.S. Mass Shootings
- National Institute of Justice: Five Facts About Mass Shootings in K-12 Schools
- School Safety: Research on Gathering Tips and Addressing Threats
- Gun Violence Research: Mass Shootings State Fact Sheet \(New York\)
- Center for American Progress: Debunking Myths the Gun Lobby Perpetuates Following Mass Shootings
- American Psychological Association: Stress of Mass Shootings Causing Cascade of Collective Traumas
- The Washington Post: Trying to Stay Safe in a Mass Shooting, and to Overcome the Fear Created
- The Violence Project \(inc. Mass Shooter Database\)