Would you like to help the Library thrive in the future?

Please consider a planned gift through FFRPL.
Planned giving is any deferred gift intended to benefit the future of the Rochester Public Library. Bequests, life insurance, IRAs, trusts and annuities all make a lasting difference, and giving through FFRPL is the best way to ensure that your gift will support the Library now and into the future.

The Wingmen: The Unlikely, Unbreakable Friendship Between John Glenn and Ted Williams

by Adam Lazarus

The untold story of the unique fifty-year friendship between two American Marine Corps aviators and celebrated American icons: astronaut John Glenn (the first U.S. astronaut to orbit Earth), and Baseball Hall of Famer Ted Williams (known as the "greatest hitter who ever lived").

Presenter: Jim Holleran, a retired teacher from the Rochester City School District, was a sports editor at the Democrat & Chronicle in the 1990's. He referees high school lacrosse and basketball and writes a weekly column for The Journal in Ogdensburg, NY.

All You Have to Do is Call

by Kerri Maher

"It's not only a timely novel, but storytelling at its finest – a must-read."—NPR

A gripping novel based on the true story of the Jane Collective – Chicago's women-led, underground health clinic that offered reproductive counseling and safe, illegal abortions in the early 1970's.

Presenter: Andy Aligne, MD, MPH. As director of the Hoekelman Center at URM, Dr. Aligne teaches, does research, and practices evidence-based community health.

The Rediscovery of America: Native Peoples and the Unmaking of U.S. History

by Ned Blackhawk

Blackhawk's book begins with the question, 'How can a nation founded on the homelands of dispossessed Indigenous peoples be the world's most exemplary democracy?' He then analyzes five centuries of Native and non-Native histories to provide a more accurate narrative of the United States.

Presenter: Brianna Theobald, associate professor of history at the University of Rochester and the author of Reproduction on the Reservation: Pregnancy, Childbirth, and Colonialism in the Long Twentieth Century.

March 26

The Wager

by David Grann

Grann retells the story of the 18th century ship the Wager – a British boat bound for South America on a secret mission during the Imperial War with Spain. The book is "an adventure on the high seas, a horror story, and a courtroom drama." — Rolling Stone

Presenter: Chuck Baylis, United States Army Veteran; Founder and Executive Director, Military History Society of Rochester.

Leg: The Story of a Limb and the Boy Who Grew From It

by Greg Marshall

Leg is a hilarious, poignant memoir about grappling with family, disability, and life as a gay man with cerebral palsy – "prickly questions about passing and privilege, obsession and denial, the parts of our identities we hide and those we claim ..."

Presenter: Stephanie Woodward, Executive Director, Disability EmpowHer Network. Stephanie is a proud disabled woman and attorney who is committed to mentoring disabled youth to live to their fullest potential.

April 9

Crossings

by Ben Goldfarb

Goldfarb investigates road ecology – animals killed by cars (a million a day in the U.S. alone); invasive plants 'traveling' on tires; water contamination from road salt; and the impact of noise pollution on songbirds – and outlines innovative solutions to better serve ourselves and nature.

Presenter: Steve Orr, a 40-year reporter at the Democrat & Chronicle, covered transportation, the environment, public health, and conservation.

Thicker Than Water: A Memoir

by Kerry Washington

Award-winning actor, director, producer, and activist Kerry Washington details her life-changing experience when her identity was unexpectedly shattered. "[Her] book takes a compassionate sledgehammer to the facades that so many of us create about ourselves and our families." — Trevor Noah, author of Born a Crime.

Presenter: CaTyra Polland, Founder/CEO of Love for Words. CaTyra is an author, editor, and podcast hostess who enjoys going to concerts and thrift shopping.

The Central Library is accessible to people with disabilities. To request specific accommodations, call 585-428-8304 ten days prior to the program.
